Enterprise Florida, Inc.

As Chief of Staff, Marc Adler, helps to lead Enterprise Florida, Inc. (EFI), the principal economic development organization for the state of Florida. Adler brings a unique combination of skills to his role at EFI, combining experience with entrepreneurial leadership, legal counsel and business development.

Adler brings vast experience in private sector businesses. Prior to joining EFI, he served as the Vice President of DRB Capital, a Blackstone Portfolio Company. During his time with DRB, Marc was tasked with business development and Investor Relations for the Delray Beach-based company. Adler has also served as Chief Executive Officer of Triple F Entertainment, a regulatory complex Orlando-based business.

In addition to business development, Adler has vast experience with start-up businesses having served as the Chief Executive Officer of Trackdox, a pioneering health care company specializing in the secure transfer of electronic medical records. As General Counsel and Vice President of Government Relations for Amdep Inc., Adler helped to manage the tremendous growth of an eCommerce business based in Boca Raton. In the political sphere Adler served as the executive director of the Republican Jewish Coalition for the state of Florida, his primary role was business development and procurement of high net worth donors.

Marc is a native Floridian and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Florida.

During his undergraduate studies, Adler served as Student Body President of the University of Florida and was the first student member of the University of Florida Board of Trustees. He previously served as the Vice Chairman of Honor Flights South Florida Board of Directors. He is on the Board of Directors for the Garand Collectors Society and enjoys going back to UF with his wife, Ashton.
