PRO BONO FEES AND COSTS STATEMENT:

Pro Bono legal services provided under GI LAW are free of charge to the service member. However, there may be costs associated with such pro bono legal services that the service member may need to pay, including, but not limited to, court filing fees. The service member's assigned attorney will discuss with the service member any anticipated potential costs in the scope of representation.

SERVICE MEMBER INSTRUCTION: GI LAW Legal Assistance Request Forms must be submitted through the appropriate Judge Advocate General or civilian military attorney's office. Request forms are not accepted directly from service members. Please contact your assigned Judge Advocate General (JAG) Office or Legal Unit to apply.

SERVICE MEMBER AUTHORIZATION:

I, _____, hereby authorize (i) GI LAW, (ii) the requesting Officer or Attorney, and (iii) GI LAW participating law firms to review and use any and all information provided pursuant to this form for all purposes consistent with the GI LAW program, including, but not limited to, determining whether the request meets pro bono prerequisites of the participating firm. I authorize the requesting Officer or Attorney to disclose and review all pertinent information relating to this referral with this participating attorney.
