Overview

- International trade proved, once again, to be one of the state's strongest sectors in 2013, even with the economic challenges that affected global trade.
- Total merchandise trade (exports plus imports) reached $158.4 billion the second-highest level ever recorded as total trade fell by -2.3% in 2013. Merchandise exports (goods that are shipped from and through Florida) were down by -5.4% and imports gained 1.6%.
- As expected, the same activity that drove trade up over the last few years imports of gold from Latin America/Mexico and exports of that gold to Switzerland – accounted for virtually all of the decline. Gold prices hit a high of $1,895 per ounce in September of 2011 and dropped precipitously throughout 2013. Florida exports felt the impact, falling by $4.9 billion, as exports to Switzerland alone fell by $4.8 billion.

Removing the commodity-price-driven decline of gold exports, Florida's total trade growth was on par with the U.S. in 2013 (less than 1% for both).

 International trade and investment accounted for about one-sixth of the state's economic output last year and supports an estimated one million jobs, further underscoring its impact on the state. Trade and foreign investment play a fundamental role in Florida's economy by fueling growth, supporting jobs, and diversifying the economic infrastructure.

Economic Impact

- International business, including the value of trade in goods and services as well as foreign direct investment, accounts for about one-sixth (17 percent) of Florida's economy.
- International trade in goods and services along with employment by foreign-owned companies is estimated to support over one million jobs in the state. Our manufacturers, seaports, airports, and logistics providers all employ Floridians and their families.

Florida's Export Sector

More than 60,000 Florida companies export, accounting for 20 percent of all U.S. exporters in 2011.
 This is the second largest number of exporters in the U.S. after California.

Number of Exporters
California	75,028
Florida	60,147
New York	41,216
Texas	40,056
Illinois	22,855

- The number of Florida exporters grew by three percent from 2010 to 2011, a gain of 1,732.
- More than 96 percent of Florida exporters are small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) with 500 or fewer employees.
- Small and medium-sized companies accounted for 68 percent of Florida exports in 2011. This is the highest figure among the 50 states and is much higher than the U.S. average of 33 percent.
- According to the Florida Chamber of Commerce's "Florida Trade and Logistics Study 2.0:"
 - More than half a million Floridians hold jobs in trade and logistics industries.
 - Jobs in Florida's trade and logistics industries pay 30 percent higher wages than the state average.
 - Roughly 1 in 7 Florida manufacturing jobs depend on exports.
- The U.S. Department of Commerce reports that, on average, companies that export grow 15 percent faster, pay 15 percent higher wages and are 12 percent more profitable than those that do not export.

Merchandise Trade

- In 2013, Florida's total merchandise trade (exports plus imports) totaled $158.4 billion, the second highest level ever recorded.
- The state showed a loss of -2.3 percent in 2013, while the U.S. performed only slightly better with a .62 percent gain
- The Miami Customs District was the 12th busiest District in the U.S., even with a decline of -3.4 percent in total trade.
- The Miami Customs District was one of only eleven Districts that had a trade surplus in 2013, and Miami had the second largest surplus of the 44 Districts nationwide.

Merchandise Exports

- Merchandise exports goods that are shipped from and through Florida totaled $85.5 billion in 2013 the third-highest level ever. U.S. exports gained 2.09 percent during the same period.
- Florida merchandise exports fell by -5.4 percent over 2012, and the value of the decline was $4.9 billion. Florida's exports to Switzerland alone fell by $4.8 billion, highlighting the significant impact that gold exports to Switzerland have had on the state.
